BALLY’S LAS VEGAS HOTEL & CASINO

SKYVIEW 5/6, 26th Floor
Antiquarian Booksellers' Association of America and
the Booksellers' Showcase

The Antiquarian Booksellers’ Association of America strives to uphold the strictest standards of the trade. All members must meet certain criteria in order to apply for membership and are bound by a Code of Ethics. In addition to hosting three book fairs per year, we administer two charitable funds: the Booksellers’ Benevolent Fund which offers financial assistance to booksellers in a time of need and the Elisabeth Woodburn Fund which offers scholarships to booksellers, both novice and established, for educational pursuits.

We are delighted to be a part of the Preconference and offer the Booksellers’ Showcase again this year.

The following 40 members are exhibiting at the Showcase.

Support the National Collegiate Book Collecting Contest

The Antiquarian Booksellers’ Association of America (ABAA), the Fellowship of American Bibliophilic Societies (FABS), the Center for the Book and the Rare Books and Special Collections Division (the Library of Congress) have jointly assumed leadership of the National Collegiate Book Collecting Contest, with major support from the Jay I. Kislak Foundation.

Established in 2005 by Fine Books & Collections magazine to recognize outstanding book collecting efforts by college and university students, the program aims to encourage young collectors to become accomplished bibliophiles. The magazine conducted the annual competition program for three years before turning over leadership to the new collaboration of institutional partners.

All donors will be acknowledged on the ABAA’s website and in the printed program for the awards ceremony at the Center for the Book in the Library of Congress. Sponsors and Founders will be accorded permanent acknowledgment; Friends, Supporters and Benefactors will receive acknowledgment upon renewal of annual support. All donations are fully tax-deductible and will receive written acknowledgment.

Please make checks payable to the Elisabeth Woodburn Fund and note “Contest” on the memorandum line. To make a donation, please contact us at the address below.
